April 1st, 2018 - When I'm home on a Sunday afternoon I like to make sure some simple household task coincides with On the Media so I can listen to it. Inevitably the task takes more than an hour and I end up also hearing Marketplace Money. Nothing against the personal finance show, but my low tolerance for hearing other people's awkward conversations makes me kind of hate call-in shows generally.

RINGING BELLS BREAKS THE SPELL

Haunted America Tours

March 26th, 2019 - At any rate concerning church bells, Paulinus, bishop of Nola, a town of Campania in Italy, supposedly introduced the ringing of bells in a Christian church as early as the 400s. In 604, the use of bells in churches was sanctioned by Pope Sabinian and a ceremony for blessing them was established a little later.

Church Bells Don’t Dare Call Them Zombies 2 by Zachary

April 16th, 2019 - While I loved Book 1 of this series, Don’t Dare Call Them Zombies, Church Bells went in a much different direction. Taking place mostly at a church, it is certainly filled with mysticism. As an agnostic, I was put off by the miracles detailed in this book. Additionally, this book lacked the sense of danger that any zombie novel should have.

March 21st, 2019 - So I started with the first book in this series titled Aisle 13 Don't Dare Call Them Zombies and loved it. After reading book 1, I checked to see what other books this author had to offer. I saw that he had 4 books out and you could buy them in a 4 book collection for $2.99 and knew this low cost for all four books was for me.

Red State 2011 Red State 2011 User Reviews IMDb
April 19th, 2019 - I think Red State is an unappreciated gem of a film. Coming from the perspective of being fascinated with the Westboro Baptist Church, I especially got into it. If you don't know about the Westboro Baptist Church prior to watching the movie, you need to look them up. Because much of the film is based around a religious sect that is quite similar.
