author and the son of Frank Herbert who was the creator of the Dune series and much of its supporting universe while Brian Herbert has had several of his own novels published. He is presently most famous for his work that expands on his father's Dune, Hunters of Dune, and the concluding volume Sandworms of Dune bring together the great story lines and beloved characters in Frank Herbert's classic Dune universe ranging from the time of the Butlerian Jihad to the original Dune series and beyond. Based directly on Frank Herbert's final outline which lay hidden in a safe deposit box for a decade, these two volumes will finally answer the question that his novel the Race for God came from my concern over the long history of religious conflict in human history. Frankly, I'm angry about it and quite disappointed in human nature. Mankind it seems is capable of the highest most exalted achievements and at the other extreme the most base, vile, selfish behavior imaginable. Dune is a science fiction media franchise that originated with the 1965 novel Dune by Frank Herbert. Dune is frequently cited as the best-selling science fiction novel in history. It won the 1966 Hugo Award and the inaugural Nebula Award for Best Novel and was later adapted into a 1984 film and a 2000 television miniseries. Herbert wrote five sequels, and the first two were presented as a two-part miniseries. Brian Herbert and Kevin J Anderson's Navigators of Dune is the climactic finale of the great Schools of Dune trilogy set 10,000 years before Frank Herbert's classic Dune, where Frank Herbert envisioned a living breathing universe full of characters you could care about, relate to, abhor, understand or not, and could write an entire thesis on social, religious or political commentary in a few short paragraphs alone. Brian Herbert and Kevin J. Anderson have dumbed down the Dune universe to a mere shadow of what it once was. Brian Herbert, who is the son of Dune author Frank Herbert and the gatekeeper of the property, announced via Twitter that he and Kevin J. Anderson would be joining the Blade Runner 2049 director about Dune. Dune is considered one of the greatest science fiction novels of all time and Frank Herbert left a lasting legacy to fans and family alike. Brian Herbert, the son and coauthor of Kevin J. Anderson, has continued the series keeping the original authors' vision alive and bringing the saga to millions of new readers, using Frank Herbert's final outline hidden in a bank safe deposit box for eleven years. Brian Herbert and Kevin J. Anderson now tell the grand climax of the story left unfinished in Chapter House Dune and continued in Hunters of Dune.
