Inspiring graduation speeches by amazing women by Kelly Conniff, May 18, 2014.

Let's face it, ten years out, many of us can't remember who spoke at our graduation ceremonies, let alone, Christian graduation quotes.

1. He gives strength to the weary and increases the power of the weak. Even youths grow tired and weary, and young men stumble and fall, but those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles. They will run and not grow weary. They will walk and not be faint. Isaiah 40:29,31.

An address given to the class of 2015 of the Covenant School of Charlottesville by Karen Wright, Marsh, Executive Director of Theological Horizons, May 30, 2015.

Good morning, friends, families, faculty and administration.

And a very good morning to you, Covenant School Class of 2015.

It is a tremendous honor to have been invited to speak to you today, Vice President Pence, an evangelical Christian, has imparted graduation advice to a narrow slice of American students. Those gaining degrees from religious colleges and military academies. America is known as the land of the free and the home of the brave but to Christians, it is also increasingly becoming a land of the politically correct and a country where honor students can't mention God in their graduation speeches. This was recently exemplified by Moriah Bridges, a graduating student who was prohibited from delivering a speech due to its religious content.

We are filled with joy as we stand together offering our most sincere congratulations to the graduating students. Congratulations for the past four years, we have seen and appreciated your hard work. Some may wonder about the importance of studying theology, the Bible, and ministry with our college. In answer to that, I have two.
