With the exception of teenagers receiving their first license, few look forward to a visit to the DMV. Generally, the goal is to keep the number of visits and the amount of time spent waiting to a minimum. Applicants will be administered an eye exam at the DMV. If, for instance, you are renewal and are a bit anxious, vision tests the DMV and the evaluation drivers must undergo in order to qualify for or get a driver's license renewed in California, drivers must pass a vision test administered by the DMV. Drivers are first asked to read a line on an eye chart with both eyes open and then asked to read different lines with each eye individually. At least once in your life, you must have squinted at the eye chart at the doctor's office or DMV trying to make out the blurry letters. This is because vision tests are not just about reading the letters. They are also about assessing your visual acuity and ensuring that you have the necessary vision to operate a vehicle safely.
