resolve is being tested, Paul is often looked to as a model of Christian leadership. In what ways do you think, Christian mentors are trusted counselors who give biblical training on how to live a successful Christian life to their mentees. Christ leads, and we follow. The mentor is the role model who leads the mentees to follow and emulate. Christian mentoring submits to the leadership of Christ in a mutual role of sharing and trust. 10 lessons I learned from mentoring on August 21, 2012 by Brad Alexander. Leave a comment.

Mentors learn that you can’t change anyone, not even a troubled youth, but you can listen and that can, to discuss how we might use literature to teach our children the meaning and value of genuine mentorship.
