Chinese Cinderella summary: the main character is a twelve-year-old girl called Ye Xian who lives in China in the middle of World War II. Like the author, Ye Xian is deemed to bring bad luck. Chinese Cinderella is a revised version of part of her 1997 autobiography, Falling Leaves, which describes her experiences growing up in China during the Second World War. First published in 1999, Chinese Cinderella is a story of triumph over adversity, confronting one's roots, and the power of family. Adeline Yen Mah describes her experiences growing up in China during the Second World War.

Chapters 22: Years later, Adeline finally hears from Aunt Baba and learns that Aunt Baba is very proud of her and always believed in her. She congratulates her and tells her about the Chinese Cinderella and how it relates to Adeline in several ways. In the fifth chapter of the book, the family reunites with their father, who was supposedly crying before they met him. They move to Shanghai into a big house, and Adeline finds it very different and a very big step for her in this chapter of the book.

Chapters 8-12: Adeline receives a precious baby duckling. In Chapter Eleven, the story is set in Shanghai, Japan, in the year of 1948. At the beginning of Chapter Eleven, Adeline and her brothers, sister, stepsister, and stepbrother are all given a present from one of Niang's friends. They all received a chicken, Adeline's siblings chose before her, and she was the last one.

Year 8-11: In Chapter Questions Preface, how does the author hook or interest the reader making them want to read on? Chapters 1-4 Summary: Chapter 1: Top of the Class Autumn 1941. Four year old Adeline is intelligent and smart receiving an award from her kindergarten teacher, Mother Agnes. On the first week of school, please post a quote from Chinese Cinderella, chapters 9 through 17, and include the page number for reference. Make sure you explain what it says, what it means, and if you agree with it. The blog is due by 11:59 pm on Friday, February 14. The response is due by 11:59 pm on Monday. The first four chapters in Chinese Cinderella are mainly about Adeline Yen Mah and her family. It tells us who is in her family: Aunt Baba, Grandpa Ye Ye, Grandma Nai Nai, her deceased mother, her father, her stepmother, Niang, Grand Aunt, Big Sister, Big Brother, Second Brother, Third Brother, Fourth Brother, Little Sister, and Herself. Chinese Cinderella is a heartbreaking story of a young Chinese girl who is disgraced and unwanted all her life by her own family. It is a sad memoir of Adeline Yen Mah's own childhood growing up in the 1940s and 1950s and entering her struggle for acceptance from the
