towards learning these essential skills, what do children know that adults seem to have forgotten? Children are more confident, more courageous, and enjoy life far more intensely than adults. Sometimes, it feels that we spend our entire lives trying to return to who we were as children. Here's what we can learn from our younger selves:

- Cooperation
- Being responsible
- Dealing with feelings
- Saying no
- Doing the right thing
- Dealing with disappointment
- Appreciating yourself
- Asking for help
- Being friends
- Resolving conflicts

This Holocaust Teacher Resource Center (TRC) website is dedicated to the memory of the six million Jewish people slaughtered during the Holocaust and the millions of other people slaughtered during the Nazi era. This is a great lesson where your child is given one item a circle dot and from there they are free to be as creative and unique as they are themselves. The dot by Peter Reynolds is a favorite of all the kids that I have the honor of sharing art lessons with in their classrooms. This story, songs for children's classes, and art lessons can be found here. Recordings of some of the songs found in the children's class materials for grades 1 and 2 are available.

How to write a biopoem:

1. First name
2. Three or four adjectives that describe the person
3. Important relationship (daughter of, mother of, etc.)
