United States from 1816 to 1850: The years between the election to the presidency of James Monroe in 1816 and of John Quincy Adams in 1824 have long been known in American history as the era of good feelings. The phrase was conceived by a Boston editor during Monroe's visit to New England early in his first term that a representative of the heartland of federalism could.

When Jim Butler discovered a spectacular strike on May 19, 1900 in a remote central Nevada location that would soon become Tonopah, hordes of miners, prospectors, speculators, capitalists, shopkeepers, and other opportunists hurriedly set off for the Silver State launching a migratory event the West had not witnessed since the discovery of the Comstock Lode in 1859.
