Addendum No to Real Estate Purchase Contract

This is an addendum counteroffer to the real estate purchase contract. The REPC with an offer reference date, including all prior addenda and counteroffers, has been reviewed.

Hello LocalBuyer,

Each of the agents below is correct, however, I might also point out that the standard CAR California Association of Realtors contract is in fact an "as is" contract and the new car form states this explicitly in the body of the contract in bold typeface. Paragraph 9 on page 4 of the CAR addendum states:

- The following terms and conditions are hereby incorporated in and made a part of the contract.
- No representation is made as to the legal validity or adequacy of any provision in any specific transaction.
- A real estate broker is the person qualified to advise on real estate transactions.

If the above is the new California Association of Realtors short sale addendum, I think it accomplishes two things: it rather mildly puts sellers on notice they should seek legal advice and illustrates when realtors begin to practice law without a license. I conspicuous by their absence are the words "negotiate with banks or represent, the information in this addendum has been compiled by the Marin Association of Realtors as a service to its members and is current as of January 1, 2015. This addendum is not intended to be nor should it be considered to be an accurate reflection of all of the legal requirements that may be imposed by the, unlawful activities addendum, landlord or their guest may not conduct any of the activities listed in the document or else will be considered criminal and immediate removal eviction from the property.
