Introduction Christianity begins with the resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth. Church history begins on the day of Pentecost; these Jewish Christians adopt a messianic theology and continue to follow the law of Moses, through North Africa Christianity was embraced as the religion of dissent against the expanding Roman empire in the 4th century AD. The Ethiopian King Ezana made Christianity the kingdom’s religion in the early Middle Ages. Frankly, this longest era in Christian history is the one we find most difficult to grasp and interpret; it seems such an alien time yet there was an amazing and gradual progression that paved the way for us to receive the gospel. Then and now, Christianity in India is made up of people from different church denominations. The state of Kerala is home to the Saint Thomas Christian community, an ancient body of Christians who are divided into several different churches and traditions. It is a matter of extreme significance that the Talmudic literature which is based on tradition at least a century older than Christianity has not even a specific name for the Christian belief or doctrine but mentions it only occasionally under the general category of Minim. Christianity is a monotheistic, deontological, grassroots, Jewish sectarian movement that focuses upon the life teachings and mission of Jesus of Nazareth, also known as Jesus the Christ. It began in Jerusalem in Judea in the 1st century CE and moved northward and westward in the Mediterranean region through the efforts and activities of Jesus personally chosen disciples and apostles. Can Christianity survive in a European secular society where belief and church attendance has dramatically decreased? This article will attempt to address these questions as well as examine the reasons behind and the contemporary effects of the decline of European Christianity.

The Enlightenment of the 18th century, Christianity in Asia has its roots in the very inception of Christianity which originated from the life and teachings of Jesus in 1st century Roman Palestine. Christianity then spread through the missionary work of His apostles first in the Levant and taking roots in the major cities such as Jerusalem and Antioch. It would be harder for Christianity to gain prominence due to the entrenched Zoroastrian religion but definitely not impossible given that there are more similarities in those two religions compared to the differences between Roman paganism and Christianity. Islam had little trouble completely supplanting Zoroastrianism in the 8th century. Question: What is Hellenism and how did it influence the early church? Answer: Hellenism is the term used to describe the influence of Greek culture on the peoples the Greek and Roman empires conquered or interacted with upon the Jews return from exile in Babylon. They endeavored to protect their national identity by following the law closely.
