Dear Sir,

I hope this letter finds you in the best of spirits. A church resignation letter is written by a full-time church worker often holding a paid position. It could be a formal written notice announcing the intention to leave a position with a religious organization. It is usually addressed to a pastor or other church leader. This letter should cover the following:

1. Hereby withdraw my consent to being treated as a member and I withdraw my consent to being subject to church rules, policies, beliefs, and discipline.
2. This letter is my formal resignation from the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints and it is effective immediately.
3. I have terminated my membership in the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints.
4. Please remove my name from the records of the Church.
5. In 30 days please send me a letter confirming that my membership was terminated at my request.

Please remove my name from the records of the Church and notify me that my membership has been terminated.

Sincerely,
