Cadette Juliettes October 2013

Membership levels of the Girl Scouts of the USA

Since 2008, Girl Scouts of the USA have had five age levels: Daisy, Brownie, Junior, Cadette, and Senior. In 2011, they added the sixth level of Ambassadors. Girl Scouts move or bridge to the next level usually at the end of the school year, when they reach the age to advance. They are considered in the appropriate level based on their grade.

If my girls had decided to continue with a troop this fall, I'd have one Junior and one Cadette since they wished to earn badges on their own. I'm currently serving as a mentor for my two Juliettes. Last year, we had a split troop of Brownies and Junior Girl Scouts. So my younger daughter has already completed many of the Junior badge activities. We agreed it is best for our family for both.
